

All the News – Local, National and International

ProQuest Newsstand enables libraries to design their own custom database from a collection of almost 1,400 newspapers including more than 1,100 in current full text, and over 600 additional titles including newswires and magazines.

ProQuest Newsstand is available as a single database, regional bundles, or you can pick and choose individual titles.

Benefits of accessing current news via ProQuest Newsstand include:

- Accurate cross-searching between newspaper titles to compare regional perspectives and also with ProQuest Historical Newspapers.
- Access to high-quality titles known for their journalistic merit – the core of the database is the major newspapers collection, which includes national and leading regional papers such as: The Guardian; The Times; The New York Times; The Wall Street Journal; The Wall Street Journal Asia; USA TODAY; Chicago Tribune; Los Angeles Times; The Boston Globe; The Christian Science Monitor; Toronto Star; The Hindu; China News; and The Washington Post.
- A significant backfile – coverage for many titles dates back to the 1990s.
- Many titles exclusive to ProQuest in aggregated collections.
- Newspapers are indexed using a controlled vocabulary to allow for cross-searching with other current ProQuest content.

ProQuest Newsstand™ (Regional Collections)
